SECTION 2. A new White Salmon Municipal Code Chapter 2.20 – Boards, Commissions and Committees is adopted as follows:

Chapter 2.20 Boards, Commissions, and Committees.

2.20.010 Committees

A. Appointment by mayor.

At the first regular meeting of the city council in January of each year, the Mayor shall, with the advice and consent of the city council, appoint the following standing committees:

1. Personnel and finance committee which shall consist of three members, two of whom shall be members of the city council and one member at large whom shall be representative of the public and is a resident of the City of White Salmon and are of legal voting age. The mayor and clerk-treasurer, or their designees, shall serve as non-voting ex officio members.
2. City operations committee (parks, health and sanitation, street systems, water and wastewater facilities, fire and police) which shall consist of two council members.
3. Community development committee (annexation and real estate, tourism and business development, and housing) which shall consist of five members, two of which shall be members of the city council, two of which shall be members of the planning commission and one of which shall be a member of the White Salmon Arts Council.

4. Lodging tax advisory committee shall consist of five members, two representatives of a business required to collect the lodging tax (hotel/motel tax), two representatives of an activity whose activities are authorized to be funded by the lodging tax (hotel/motel tax); and one representative of the city council who shall be the Chairperson of the lodging tax advisory committee.

B. Creation of committees.

1. The mayor may create other committees with the consent of the council.
2. If a committee is created that is intended to be a standing committee, this code shall be amended to reflect such committee.
3. If a committee is created for which the duration is intended to be no longer than a 5-year period, a resolution identifying the makeup of the committee and its purpose, powers and duties shall be adopted.

C. Committees – Powers and duties.

1. Personnel and finance committee.
 - a. It is the responsibility of the committee to consider and approve draft budget proposals prepared and submitted by city staff, and as may be revised or amended by a majority vote of the committee, and to make recommendations to the city council for the adoption.
 - b. The committee shall advise the city council on matters pertaining to financial affairs of the city.
 - c. The committee shall advise the city council on personnel issues as they relate to the budget.
 - d. The committee is kept apprised by city staff as to the status of union negotiations and union grievances. The representative from the public shall not participate in discussions regarding union negotiations and union grievances.
 - e. The committee shall perform such other duties as may be imposed by ordinances or the order of the city council.
2. City operations committee (parks, health and sanitation, street system, water and wastewater utilities, fire and police).
 - a. The committee is kept apprised by city staff on matters pertaining to parks; police and fire; refuse collection; sanitary conditions and health of the city; the conditions of roads, streets, alleyways and parking facilities; and water and wastewater utility services and infrastructure.

- b. The committee may recommend measures to the city council they deem proper for the betterment of the city.
 - c. The committee reports on matters referred to them by the city council.
 - d. The committee is designated as the utilities comprehensive plan committee and shall represent the city on the multi-jurisdictional water and wastewater committee comprised of the jurisdictions of the city of White Salmon, City of Bingen and the Port of Klickitat which addresses water and wastewater utility services, including capital improvements, and utility service interlocal agreements existing or deemed necessary between the parties.
3. Community development committee (annexations and real estate, tourism, business development, and housing).
- a. The committee is kept apprised by city staff on matters pertaining to tourism and business development, including opportunities for enhancing tourism and business and its overall impact to the city.
 - b. The committee is kept apprised of the city's real properties within and adjacent to city limits and within the White Salmon urban growth area including existing and proposed use of such properties.
 - c. The committee is kept apprised of existing and future annexation policies and the general impact of annexation to city infrastructure and municipal services.
 - d. The committee is kept apprised of matters pertaining to housing developments and issues related to housing within and adjacent to the city limits and within the White Salmon urban growth area.
 - e. The committee may recommend measures to the city council and/or the planning commission they deem proper for the betterment of the city.
 - f. The committee reports on matters referred to them by the city council.
4. Lodging tax advisory committee.
- a. The lodging tax committee shall review proposals for changes in the hotel/motel tax authorized in Chapter 3.50, including increases or decreases in the rate of tax, the repeal of an exemption to the hotel/motel tax, or a change in the use of the monies accumulated in the Hotel/Motel Tax Fund, as required in RCW 67.28.1817.

- b. The lodging tax committee may establish programs and procedures whereby parties may apply for grants from the Hotel/Motel Tax Fund for tourism promotion, acquisition of tourism-related facilities, or operation of tourism-related facilities. Any grants under such programs must be approved by the City Council.
- c. Pursuant to RCW 67.28.1817, the lodging tax advisory committee shall review any proposal described in that section, and shall submit comments on the proposal, which comments shall include an analysis of the extent to which the proposal will accommodate activities for tourists or increase tourism, and the extent to which the proposal will affect the long-term stability of the Hotel/Motel Tax Fund.

D. Committees – Meetings.

All committee meetings are presumed to be open and subject to the Washington Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA), RCW Chapter. 42.30, if the committee is taking public testimony or comment or making decisions (adjudicative or legislative) on behalf of the council. Meetings that involve mere fact-finding, staff conferences and reporting to council without public testimony or comment are not typically subject to the OPMA.

2.20.020 Commissions.

A. Creation or Establishment of Commissions.

Commissions shall be created or established as required by state statute with the consent of the city council.

B. Planning Commission.

1. Created - Membership.

There is created a city planning commission to be known as the "White Salmon City Planning Commission," pursuant to the provisions of RCW 35.63.020, et seq., which planning commission shall consist of five members to be appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the city council, and that not more than one-third of which number of appointees may be ex officio members by virtue of office held in the city, pursuant to the provisions of RCW 35.63.030. At least three members of the planning commission shall be residents of the city of White Salmon. If a matter is scheduled to come before the city planning commission, and there is not a meeting held to consider the matter, the matter shall be referred directly to the city council at its next regularly scheduled meeting, which allows for proper notice as required by Washington statutes and city ordinances.

2. Appointment - Terms

Members of the planning commission shall be appointed or reappointed for terms of four years. All appointments and/or reappointments provided for herein shall be made by the mayor, and confirmed by the city council. Upon the resignation or removal of any planning commission, the successor shall be appointed for the remainder of the unexpired term.

3. Powers and duties - Statutory authority.

There is vested in the planning commission the statutory powers as set forth under RCW 35A.63.020 and the following additional powers and duties:

- a. Hold public hearings and make final decisions concerning conditional use permits and variances to the zoning ordinance. In making final decision concerning conditional use permits, variances to the zoning ordinances, and home occupation permits, the planning commission shall be acting as the board of adjustment under Chapter 17.80 of the White Salmon Municipal Code.
- b. Hold public hearings and make findings and recommendations to the city council on subdivision applications, comprehensive plan amendments and zone changes.
- c. Give final written permission for home occupation permits under Chapter 17.56 of the White Salmon Municipal Code.
- d. The city council may refer to the planning commission for its recommendation and report, any ordinance, resolution or other proposal relating to any of the matters and subjects referred to in Chapter 35.63 RCW, and the commission shall promptly report to the council thereon, making such recommendations and giving such counsel as it may deem proper.

4. Operation.

- a. The planning commission shall elect its own chair and vice chair annually.
- b. The commission will have two regular monthly meeting dates upon which it will convene to do business as necessary in response to citizen or city council requests. Business shall be conducted in accordance with state law and rules adopted by the planning commission.

- c. Written record shall be kept of all meetings, transactions, findings, and determinations, which record shall be of public record.

C. Civil Service Commission.

1. Powers and duties.

- a. The civil service commission shall have all the powers of and perform each and all the duties specified by Chapters 41.08 and 41.12 RCW, together with any duties or authority which may hereafter be conferred upon them by the laws of the State of Washington; the performance of such duties and exercise of such authority to be subject to each and all limitations expressed in such legislative enactment or enactments.
- b. The civil service commission shall make general rules and regulations implementing this chapter and state laws relating to civil service commissions in cities.

2. Appointment of commissioners.

The mayor of the City of White Salmon shall appoint three commissioners with confirmation of the city council. The members of the civil service commission shall:

- a. Serve without compensation;
- b. Be citizens of the United States;
- c. Be residents of the City of White Salmon for at least three years immediately preceding appointment;
- d. Be an elector of Klickitat County;
- e. Serve for a term of six years with multiple terms permissible;
- f. Devote due time and attention to the performance of the duties specified by this chapter and RCW Chapter 41.12.

3. Removal of commissioners.

A commissioner may be removed from office by the entity or official who appointed him/her, for incompetence, dereliction of duty, malfeasance in office, or other good cause: provided, however, that no member of the commission may be removed until charges have been preferred, in writing, due notice and a full hearing provided.

4. Quorum, voting, political parties.

Two members of the commission shall constitute a quorum and the votes of any two members concurring shall be sufficient for decision on all matters. At the time of any appointment, not more than two commissioners may be members of the same political party.

5. Exempted positions.

The position of chief of police is exempted from the classified civil service of the city per RCW 41.12.050.

3.20.030 Boards.

A. Creation or Establishment of Boards.

Boards shall be created or established as required by state statute or upon the recommendation of the mayor with the consent of the city council.

B. Tree Board.

1. Creation and Establishment of a City Tree Board.

There is hereby created and established a City Tree Board for the City of White Salmon, Washington which shall consist of five members, two of which shall be city council members and three shall be citizens and residents at large of this city, who shall be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the city council.

2. Term of Office.

The term of the five persons to be appointed by the mayor shall be three years. In the event that a vacancy shall occur during the term of any member, his or her successor shall be appointed for the unexpired portion of the term.

3. Compensation.

Members of the board shall serve without compensation.

4. Duties and Responsibilities.

It shall be the responsibility of the board to study, investigate, develop and administer a written plan for the care, preservation, pruning, planting, replanting, removal or disposition of trees and shrubs in parks, along streets and in other public areas. Such plan shall be reviewed and/or updated biannually, or as needed. All revisions shall be presented to the city council for acceptance and approval and thereafter shall constitute the official comprehensive city tree plan for the City of White Salmon, Washington.

The board, when requested by the city council, shall consider, investigate, make findings, report and recommend upon any special matter of question coming within the scope of its work.

5. Operation.

The board shall choose its own officers, make its own rules and regulations and keep a journal of its proceedings. A majority of the members shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. The city tree board shall be considered a public agency and shall observe the laws relating thereto, primarily those set forth in the Washington Open Public Meetings Act, RCW Chapter 42.30 and the Washington Public Records Act, RCW Ch. 42.56.

C. CityLab Board.

1. Purpose and intent.

The City of White Salmon is committed to cultivating and preserving a community that emphasizes inclusion and connectedness. The collective sum of the individual differences, life experiences, knowledge, innovation, self-expression and connections that our residents invest into building this community represents the level to which the city engages with and empowers its residents. The board will serve as a vehicle to harness this collective energy towards continually focusing policy proposals and initiatives back to achieving the core aims as outlined in the Comprehensive Plan and other visioning documents adopted by the City Council, such as the Climate Crisis Resolution (Resolution 2021-03-517), Diversity Resolution (Resolution 2019-06-489) and AARP Network of Age-Friendly States and Communities Membership.

The city wants feedback and input in considering how all citizens within the community are impacted by decisions of the City, including black, indigenous, and persons of color, who have historically been missing from civic engagement. The City of White Salmon values diversity and creating an inclusive community where all residents are treated fairly and equitably.

2. Definitions.

- a. “City of White Salmon” is defined as the area within the established city limits of the City of White Salmon.

- b. “White Salmon Urban Exempt Area” is defined as the area outside the city limits of the City of White Salmon, and defined by the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area Act.
 - c. “Columbia Gorge Tribal Representative” is defined as a member of one of the following tribes: Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs, Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation, Nez Perce Tribe and the Confederated Tribes of Umatilla Indian Reservation.
 - d. “High School Student” is defined as a high school in the White Salmon Urban Exempt area that supports both the City of White Salmon and the White Salmon Urban Exempt Area.
4. Creation and establishment of a CityLab board.

There is, hereby, created and established a CityLab Board for the City of White Salmon, Washington, which shall consist of up to 10 members, two shall be city council members and three City of White Salmon residents. The remaining five members can consist of residents in the White Salmon Urban Exempt Area, Columbia Gorge tribal representatives, High School Students, or other regionally appropriate stakeholders. All shall be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the council. Any member may be removed from the board with a recommendation from the mayor and the approval of the council.

5. Term of office.

The term of the ten persons to be appointed by the mayor shall be two years. A High School Student representative could be a one- or two-year term (Junior or Senior). In the event that a vacancy shall occur during the term of any member, his or her successor shall be appointed for a two-year term.

6. Compensation.

Members of the board shall serve without compensation.

7. Duties and Responsibilities.

- a. It shall be the responsibility of the board to take direction from the Mayor and/or City Council on items the board may study, investigate, or provide guidance in order to develop and recommend ordinances, resolutions, and/or building code changes that support the adopted Comprehensive Plan and other visioning documents approved by the City Council. The Board will operate under a clear Scope of Work or Outline that will be amended as needed.

- b. All recommendations will consider how all citizens within the City are impacted, including black, indigenous, and persons of color, and persons of all abilities.
- c. All recommendations will be routed to the city council or the planning commission based on staff recommendation.
- d. The CityLab Board, when requested by the mayor or the city council, shall consider, investigate, make findings, report and recommend upon any special matter of question coming within the scope of its work.

8. Operation.

The board shall select a chairperson and keep a record of its proceedings. The board shall meet at least quarterly but no more than monthly. A majority of the members shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. A city staff member will attend and support all meetings. The CityLab Board shall be considered a public agency and shall observe the laws relating thereto, primarily those set forth in the Washington Open Public Meetings Act, RCW 42.30 and the Washington Public Records Act, RCW 42.56.
